INTRODUCTION

International Conference on Libraries (ICOL) is a conference that has been organized by Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) since 2005. This time, ICOL 2017 will be organized on 2nd - 3rd August 2017 at Vistana Hotel, Penang, with the theme "Towards Lean Libraries".

This conference is the best platform for information professionals from Malaysia and other countries to discuss the latest trends and developments in the field of librarianship and information science. It has also become one of the biggest events in the calendar of information professional in Malaysia.

The conference also will be a good platform in presenting the latest library technologies through products and innovation exhibition by library-related companies that can be used to empower library and information services in the future.

OBJECTIVES

To provide a platform for information sharing, expertise, experience and professionalism through paper presentations and research findings.

- To foster the strategic networks, promote cooperation and exchange of experiences in the field of librarianship.

- To provide an overview of the lean management concept and its applications in the library

- To discuss on issues and challenges as well as strategies to strengthen the implementation of lean management through intellectual discourse and paper presentations.

SESSIONS

- Managing libraries
- Creativity and innovation
- Right tool at the right time
- Improve while reduce

TARGET AUDIENCES

Librarians, Information Specialists, Knowledge Managers, Record Managers, Researchers, Educators and Executives from both government and private sectors.
